

December 2, 2020

Today is the beginning of a three part series of dramatic reflections on the Christmas story, conceived and directed by Kevin Groppe, who is a long-time director, actor, and member of our church.

I invite you to take a deep breath and savor the reflection offered in the short video above.

Each week, a new reflection will focus on Christmas from the perspective of a different person, all based on the writings of Frederick Buechner.

I am grateful to Kevin for this creative way for our church community to make a spiritual journey through Advent.

Peace,

Rev. Matthew Wooster
Senior Minister
