Happy Epiphany!

Today is the celebration of Epiphany in the Christian calendar.

Is there an epiphany for you today?

Epiphany celebrates the adoration of the magi, who traveled from afar to visit Jesus after his birth, marking the first time that the Christ child is revealed to people from the wider world.

What is the epiphany for you today?

Epiphany means the manifestation of God. To have an epiphany is to experience the presence of God as a reality in our lives.

So, what is your epiphany today?

In what ways are you aware of God's presence in your life today?

When I'm having trouble, I try to start small.

Where do I see the gifts of God?

Where do I see kindness and generosity being practiced?

Where do I see mercy, and where do I perceive beauty?

How have you witnessed the practice of love?

These are all epiphanies. They are the manifestations of God.

There is an epiphany for you this day.

Peace,
