

Church Sunday School Teacher

Are you passionate about sharing Christian values with children? Wellesley Hills Congregational Church Sunday School seeks teachers to join our staff and help lead our thriving children's ministry program. Each Sunday morning, we teach Bible stories through art, storytelling, science, and games while teaching United Church of Christ culture and progressive values to children in Grades K through 9.

Classes meet every Sunday morning from September through May. Summer hours available.

Minimum Education Required: High school senior or college attendee seeking further education.

Minimum age requirement: 18

Hours: 2 hours prep time (at home or church) plus Sunday morning, 9:00 a.m.–12:00 p.m. in the classroom. Plus required training time.

Compensation: $100.00

Applications are accepted on a rolling basis.

Send resume and cover letter to sallyt@hillschurch.org.

Prior experience working with children and a Christian faith background is required. Must pass a background and reference check.

WHCC is an Equal Opportunity Employer. People who identify as people of color, multiracial, trans, non-binary, lesbian, gay, bisexual, queer people, people with disabilities, and immigrants are strongly encouraged to apply.

Near the Wellesley Hills T Stop.

Welcoming and fun church to work at!